

EMMA (Emergency Management Mobile Application) is new technology that empowers bystanders and incident managers to provide improved communication and basic assistance in emergency situations before the arrival of trained first responders. EMMA's push notification technology provides greater communication capability over standard text and/or email messaging platforms that can improve the management of emergencies, saving lives and improving school and workplace safety.

